

We chose to pay for Satellite radio service because of the timely information presented in a professional manner. We found that the broadcast stations did not provide information in an easy to find manner. Please encourage the Satellite industry and don't give into the antique broadcasters. Thank you!